A “material fact” means a fact that significantly affects, or would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on, the market price or value of the securities of the Company. A “material change” means a change in the business, operations or capital of the Company that would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on the market price or value of any of the securities of the Company and includes a decision to implement such a change if such a decision is made by the Board or by senior management of the Company who believe that confirmation of the decision by the Board is probable.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY OF UNDISCLOSED MATERIAL INFORMATION

- 9.1 "Undisclosed Material Information" of the Company is Material Information about the Company that has not been "Generally Disclosed"; that is, disseminated to the public by way of a press release together with the passage of a reasonable amount of time (24 hours, unless otherwise advised that the period is longer or shorter, depending on the circumstances) for the public to analyze the information.
- 9.2 Any person to whom this Policy applies and who has knowledge of Undisclosed Material Information must treat the Material Information as confidential until the Material Information has been Generally Disclosed.
- 9.3 Undisclosed Material Information shall not be disclosed to anyone except in the necessary course of business. If Undisclosed Material Information has been disclosed in the necessary course of business, anyone so informed must clearly understand that it is to be kept confidential, and, in appropriate circumstances, execute a confidentiality agreement. Schedule "C" attached hereto lists circumstances where securities regulators believe disclosure may be in the necessary course of business. When in doubt, all persons to whom this Policy applies must consult with the Chief Executive Officer of the Company to determine whether disclosure in a particular circumstance is in the necessary course of business. For greater certainty, disclosure to analysts, institutional investors, other market professionals and members of the press and other media will not be considered to be in the necessary course of business. “Tipping”, which refers to the disclosure of Undisclosed Material Information to third parties outside the necessary course of business, is prohibited.

9.4 In order to prevent the misuse of inadvertent disclosure of Undisclosed Material Information, the procedures set forth below should be observed at all times:

- (a) documents and files containing confidential information should be kept in a safe place to which access is restricted to individuals who "need to know" that information in the necessary course of business and code names should be used if necessary;
- (b) confidential matters should not be discussed in places where the discussion may be overheard and documents containing Undisclosed Material Information should not be read or worked on where they can be read by others and should only be taken off site when necessary;
- (c) transmission of documents containing Undisclosed Material Information by electronic means will be made only where it is reasonable to believe that the transmission can be made and received under secure conditions such as a dedicated server and that the Undisclosed Material Information will only be provided to those who reasonably need to see it; and
- (d) unnecessary copying of documents containing Undisclosed Material Information must be avoided and extra copies of documents must be promptly removed from meeting rooms and work areas at the conclusion of the meeting and must be destroyed if no longer required.

10. QUIET PERIOD

10.1 Each period (1) beginning on the last day of each fiscal quarter and each fiscal year, and (2) ending when the earnings for that quarter or year have been Generally Disclosed by way of a press release, will be a “Quiet Period”.

10.2 Without limited Section 5, during a Quiet Period, Spokespersons must not provide any future-oriented information relating to the business and affairs of the Company or any of its subsidiaries other than “production guidance” may be given by the Spokesperson for the Company. Spokespersons are also prohibited from providing any future oriented information about the Company or any of its subsidiaries’ prospective business, operations or capital, including future-oriented financial information (as that term is defined under applicable securities law) (“Forward-Looking Information”) about expected revenues, net income or profit, earnings per share, expenditure levels, and other information commonly referred to as earnings guidance (“Earnings Guidance”) or comments with respect to the financial results for the current fiscal quarter or current fiscal year.

- 10.3 Notwithstanding these restrictions, the Company may Generally Disclose Forward-Looking Information during the Quiet Period when the Forward-Looking Information constitutes Undisclosed Material Information.
- 10.4 During a Quiet Period, Spokespersons may respond to unsolicited inquiries about information either that is not Material Information or that has been Generally Disclosed.

11. AVOIDING SELECTIVE DISCLOSURE

- 11.1 When participating in shareholder meetings, news conferences, analysts' conferences and private meetings with analysts, Spokespersons must only disclose information that either (1) is not Material Information or (2) is Material Information but has previously been Generally Disclosed. For greater certainty, acceptable topics of discussion include the Company's business prospects (subject to the provisions of this Policy), the business environment, management's philosophy and long-term strategy. Specific discussions that relate to projected earnings and production details should be avoided. Any selective disclosure of Undisclosed Material Information, including Earnings Guidance, is not permitted.
- 11.2 To protect against selective disclosure, the following procedures should be followed:
- (a) Spokespersons who are participating in shareholder meetings, news conferences, analysts' conferences and private meetings with analysts should normally script their comments and prepare answers to anticipated questions in advance of the meeting or conference; and
 - (b) those scripts should normally be reviewed by the Disclosure Committee before the meeting or conference and any Undisclosed Material Information that is contained in the script must be Generally Disclosed before the meeting or conference or deleted from the script if it is premature for the information to be Generally Disclosed.
- 11.3 After each shareholder meeting, news conference, analysts' conference or private meeting with analysts, the Company's participants should normally meet and review the disclosures made during the course of the meeting or conference to determine if any Undisclosed Material Information was unintentionally disclosed.
- 11.4 If Undisclosed Material Information was disclosed, the participants must advise a member of the Disclosure Committee, who shall take immediate steps to ensure that the information is Generally Disclosed.
- 11.5 Pending the Material Information being Generally Disclosed, the Company must contact the parties to whom the Material Information was disclosed and inform them (1) that the information is Undisclosed Material Information and (2) of their legal obligations with respect to the Material Information.

12. FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

12.1 When reviewing analysts' reports in accordance with the procedure set out below, comments of Board Members, Officers, Employees and Contractors must be limited to identifying factual information that has been Generally Disclosed that may affect an analyst's model and pointing out inaccuracies or omissions with respect to information that has been Generally Disclosed.

Any comments must contain a disclaimer that the report was reviewed for factual accuracy only. No comfort or guidance shall be expressed on the analysts' earnings models or earnings estimates and no attempt shall be made to influence an analyst's opinion or conclusion.

12.2 The Company may from time to time give Earnings Guidance or any other Forward-Looking Information through voluntary disclosure by way of a press release, provided that appropriate cautionary language accompanies the information.

12.3 If Forward-Looking Information is Generally Disclosed:

- the information must be clearly stated to be forward-looking;
- the factors and assumptions that were used to arrive at the Forward-Looking Information must be reasonable and clearly described; and
- the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially must be clearly stated, and should be presented with a reasonably possible range of outcomes, a sensitivity analysis or other qualitative analysis that will assist in assessing the related risks.

Non-compliance with these policies is a serious breach of the terms and conditions of engagement and will be dealt with accordingly.
